

The Tony Loy Trust has donated funds to support the creation of Brass Clubs in two local Primary Schools. The Brass Clubs will enable children to learn to play brass instruments and ultimately play in the Band.
 'Huge thanks for your support from the Blewbury Brass Band!'

'The Tony Loy Trust helped me in a big way to pay towards the costs of kit, transportation and gym/AU fees all associated with university netball. It relieved the financial pressure and allowed me to become part of the most successful sporting clubs in Liverpool, and since, one of the committee members.'

Celebrating ...

...THE FIRST YEAR OF THE TONY LOY TRUST (TLT)

Since the inauguration of the Trust in June 2013, we are delighted to report back on individual, group and community projects we have been able to support.

It has been wonderful to be able to support so many worthwhile projects and even more wonderful to receive such positive feedback. We believe that Tony would have loved all of these projects and we are proud to be associated with them all.

The aim of the Trust

The aim of the Tony Loy Trust (The TLT) is to advance the education and support the development of, and provide opportunities for, children and young people under the age of 25 in Blewbury and the neighbouring area in the arts and sport. This will include:

- PROVIDING GRANTS, ALLOWANCES OR SCHOLARSHIPS;
- SUPPORTING TRAINING; AND
- ASSISTING TRAVEL, EVENTS OR PROJECTS.

'With the help of the Tony Loy Trust I was able to play both Cricket and Ultimate Frisbee at university last year. My memories of sporting achievements will, I'm sure, remain my fondest memories of university and so I was, and am, very grateful to the Tony Loy Trust for contributing to my sports fees. The picture shows the University of Birmingham Ultimate Frisbee team after winning the Mixed Outdoor National Championships in March 2014.'

'The Tony Loy Trust provided us with funds that helped support the development of the writing and the development of the work - Hemline Index (written by Eva Hibbs) - and to pay the deposits to secure our venue, The Pleasance Courtyard, one of the premiere venues at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe. They also supported us in person, attending early versions of a work in progress. This funding was instrumental in developing our company Portmanteau and establishing ourselves as a new professional theatre company'

'Blewbury Parish Council would like to express its sincere thanks to the Tony Loy Trust for the extremely generous donation that enabled the council to purchase the all-weather permanent goalposts for Tickers Folly Field.

This is a superb facility for the village that has already, in the first few weeks, seen extensive usage and we are sure will do so for many years to come.

We applaud the aims of the Trust, which reflect the person that Tony was, and we wish you every success in the future.'
